

Jeff Schmitt Appointed to Clayton Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors

LEADERSHIP CLAYTON CO-CHAIR CONTINUES CHAMBER INVOLVEMENT

Clayton, MO – June 18, 2008 – Danna McKitrick attorney Jeffrey Schmitt is appointed to a three-year term on the board of directors of the Clayton Chamber of Commerce, effective immediately. Schmitt also continues to serve as co-chair for Leadership Clayton, a Chamber of Commerce program dedicated to the training and development of outstanding leaders.

“I’m honored to have the opportunity to serve on the board and look forward to becoming more involved in the Clayton community. In the three years since I applied to participate in the Leadership Clayton program, I’ve met many fantastic people and thoroughly enjoy the experience of learning about them and gaining a deeper understanding of their different roles in the business community. I look forward to serving them through an active role on the Chamber’s board.” says Schmitt.

A member of Danna McKitrick’s litigation team since he joined the firm in 2003, Schmitt’s commercial and general civil litigation practice includes bankruptcy, construction, and real estate law, as well as providing general legal consultation for small- to mid-size businesses. Schmitt earned his J.D. from the University of Missouri-Columbia and his B.A., magna cum laude, from Saint Louis University.
