Thomas G. Glick Elected Vice President of Legal Services of Eastern Missouri

NEW VP WAS VOLUNTEER LAWYER AWARD WINNER IN 2002

St. Louis, MO – July 29, 2008 – Danna McKitrick attorney Thomas G. Glick is elected vice president of Legal Services of Eastern Missouri Inc. (LSEM) for a one-year term. In addition to holding this office, he will continue participation in the St. Louis Volunteer Lawyer Program (VLP), performing volunteer legal aid to elderly and low-income residents of eastern Missouri.

Glick served on the board of directors of LSEM for the past four years. In October of 2002, he was a recipient of the Volunteer Lawyer Award.

“Legal representation is a fundamental right for all citizens, and I’m proud of the work Legal Services has done for the citizens of Missouri. The organization really does its best to meet the needs of those who use our services. One-third of the board of directors’ seats are held by service-eligible individuals, several of whom are past clients, who give us feedback from the very important perspective of service recipients. This creates a nice sense of accountability and helps LSEM stay in touch with emerging concerns,” says Glick.

Glick earned his J.D. from the University of Missouri-Columbia School of Law and his B.A. in government from the University of Texas at Austin. In June, Glick was also elected vice president of the Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis.

About LSEM: Legal Services of Eastern Missouri, Inc. (LSEM) provides free civil legal assistance to elderly and low-income people in 21 counties in eastern Missouri. The organization was incorporated as a non-profit corporation in 1956 as The Legal Aid Society for the City and County of St. Louis. LSEM is on the web at www.lesm.org.
