Kevin E. Myers Joins Law Firm of Danna McKitrick, P.C.

St. Louis, MO – December 22, 2008 – Local law firm Danna McKitrick, P.C., announces that Kevin E. Myers is the newest associate in the firm’s litigation department. Myers focuses on both commercial and civil litigation matters—primarily insurance defense—resolving complex coverage issues from claims made on casualty and liability insurance policies, and defending transportation companies in accidents and negligence matters.

“Over the years, I have seen Kevin consistently draft excellent appellate briefs and perform solidly for many corporate clients,” says John Cooney, a principal of the firm. “I’m very happy he has come to join Danna McKitrick’s litigation department.”

During law school, Myers interned as a prosecutor for the Madison County, Illinois State’s Attorney’s office and following graduation in 2002, he practiced for over five years with a private litigation firm in St. Louis. He earned his J.D. from Saint Louis University School of Law and his B.A., in Russian studies and political science, summa cum laude, from Saint Louis University.
