

For more information, contact:
Thomas Glick
(314) 889-7177
Mobile (314) 276-7684
Jim Grandone
(618) 692-1892
Mobile (618) 444-0971

LAW FIRM GROWS, MOVES IN CLAYTON

Business Growth, Favorable Lease Terms Lead the Move

Clayton, Mo., May 15, 2009...Clayton-based law firm Danna McKitrick has moved to 23,000 sq. ft. in the Pierre Laclede Center, at 7701 Forsyth Blvd., Suite 800, from its previous location on North Meramec in Clayton. The decision to remain in Clayton followed an extensive search, which included other spaces in Clayton, as well as locations in downtown St. Louis and in the Highway 40 corridor.

“Clayton is convenient for our clients and staff. We have deep roots here and are deeply involved in the community here,” Glick said.

Since 2004 Danna McKitrick, P.C., has grown by 20 percent to 28 attorneys, along with an administrative staff of 25 people.

“This move is critical to the firm’s continued expansion and will help accommodate our needs, as we continue to add resources to support our existing clients and provide more depth for new clients coming on board,” Glick said.

The firm moved its entire Clayton office May 15 & 16 and will spend part of the following week training on new technology it is having installed at its new location.

Terms of the Lease were not disclosed.

About Danna McKitrick: With offices in Clayton and St. Charles, Mo., Danna McKitrick, P.C. delivers legal representation to new and growing businesses, financial institutions, non-profits, government-related entities, as well as families throughout the Midwest. To supplement its local resources, the firm is a member of MSI Global Alliance – an international association of more than 250 independent law and accounting firms in 100 countries.

###