St. Charles Historic District Houses New Law Office

GRAND OPENING THIS WEEK AT MAIN STREET RENOVATION

St. Louis, MO – July 17, 2007 – Danna McKitrick, multi-service law firm providing services to businesses, insurers, and individuals, opens St. Charles, Missouri office with a ribbon-cutting on July 19. The office is located on the second floor of 136 South Main in the heart of the historic district. Originally known as the Cosmos Monitor Building, the recently renovated building maintains the charm of old St. Charles and offers a dramatic view of the Missouri River.

The firm's ribbon-cutting ceremony with the St. Charles Chamber of Commerce at 2:30pm is followed by a reception with several prominent St. Charles business persons expected to attend—in fact, local brewery, O'Fallon Gold, is even supplying its award-winning beer.

“With the renovation complete, we're glad to work from this unique building. Even more so because this new location grants more convenient access for the firm's St. Charles, Warren, and Lincoln County clients,” announced long-time St. Charles attorney, Jim Borchers.
