Scott Mueller Joins Danna McKitrick, P.C.

BRINGS STRONG BACKGROUND IN REAL ESTATE, BANKING

St. Louis, MO — July 6, 2009 — Citing the firm's value system and emphasis on character, Scott Mueller returned to St. Louis from Kansas City to join Danna McKitrick this spring. He came to the firm's litigation department where his primary focus is on commercial litigation with an emphasis on real estate-related matters.

Mueller has worked in the real estate industry since 2003 in St. Louis. He represents title insurance underwriters, insured owners, lenders, and title agents. In addition to his work analyzing and resolving title claims, he handles lien disputes, mortgage issues and breach of contract claims.

"I am happy to be in St. Louis and look forward to working with the firm and its clients, as well as being part of the quality team of attorneys at Danna McKitrick," Mueller said.

Mueller also is involved assisting the firm's lender clients with secured lending, mortgage issues and, if necessary, foreclosures. Mueller advises clients on properly documenting collateral, managing loan agreements and structure, and collections on delinquent loans.

"Scott is an asset to our growing litigation practice. He brings a strong background in real estate and title litigation defense and he will be working on that and on mortgage issues here," principal Mike McKitrick said.

Mueller is admitted to the bar in Missouri, Illinois, Kansas. He also is admitted in U.S. district courts in the Eastern and Western Districts of Missouri and the U.S. District Court of Kansas.
